

CHALET LOISEL

4* Ski chalet for 10 quiet location, great views, sun terrace

Enjoy the peace and some great skiing at this cosy ski chalet in the heart of the French Alps

About Chalet Loisel ...

This lovely traditional 4 star chalet in St-Jean-de Sixt was built by a local chalet builder in 2000. South-facing, it was designed to make the most of the glorious sunshine and the splendid views along the Aravis valley to Thônes. Since then it has been renovated and updated by the present owner.

Chalet Loisel is in a quiet location halfway between the ski stations of La Clusaz and Le Grand Bornand, so it is surrounded by great skiing. There's also a small ski field in St-Jean-de-Sixt, snow permitting, which is perfect for young beginners who need to build confidence before they head for the main slopes.

There are several shops and restaurants in the village, and it's just a few minutes' drive from the market town of Thônes, where you will find larger supermarkets and a weekly market.

Sleeping 10 people, this property is ideal for two families, and kids will love the large flat garden, which is a rare feature in the mountains!
